INDUSTRY LUMINARIES TO BE HONORED AT IFDA NY
CIRCLE OF EXCELLENCE AWARDS

New York, NY–March 2010–The New York Chapter of the International Furnishings & Design Association (IFDA) will honor industry luminaries through its bi-annual awards, the Circle of Excellence (COE) in New York City on Tuesday, May 4th.

The award program was created to recognize individuals and organizations demonstrating exemplary leadership, achievement and initiative in the design and furnishing communities. The IFDA is a worldwide alliance of those in the commercial and residential design sectors and this award is considered a top honor, as it celebrates the industry's diversity in a number of distinct categories.

Honorees for 2010 include:

- Media: Cindy Allen, Interior Design Magazine
- Interior Design: Charles Pavarini III, Charles Pavarini III Design Associates
- Product Design/Development: John Stark and Steven Stark, Stark
- Retailer-to-the-Trade Resource: Benjamin Moore & Co., Ray Gomez
- Green Achievement: Steelcase, Angela Nahikian

- Education: The Smithsonian's Cooper-Hewitt, National Design Museum, Bill Moggridge
- Special Humanitarian Award: Kenneth Wampler, The Alpha Workshops

"This year's Awards will be our most exciting yet," remarked IFDA NY President, Su Hilty. "We are especially proud that honorees reflect changes in our industry and the ability to offer solutions to pressing local and global issues."

The event on May 4th will feature cocktails and a presentation from 6:00-8:00 PM at New York City's renowned Union League Club at 38 East 37th Street. Jim Druckman, President and CEO of The New York Design Center will serve as Master of Ceremonies. A portion of the evening's ticket sales will support the IFDA's Educational Foundation.

IFDA member tickets are $95; non-member tickets are $150. To purchase tickets to this year's Circle of Excellence, email the IFDA New York Chapter office at ifdaynyny@verizon.net or call 212-686-6020.
